Proposal for Management of Appointment Committee Responsibilities

The objective his proposed model for operation of the Appointments Committee is for the 20180-2019 term is to provide a sustainable method of administering the responsibilities invested in the Committee by the RTM.

suggests a delegation of responsibilities not only to committee members, but to paid Town Staff.

In the previous term, the vast majority of these were performed by the chair. This

Appointments Processes and Record Keeping

1. Responsibility for Appointments Master List will be delegated to a town entity in order to avoid the risks to continuity of business inherent due to the regular turnover in the RTM.
2. The Master List will be updated after every RTM meeting and every vacancy. Published on the RTM web site for use by the RTM and SNAC. .
3. The List will provide the user with ability to sort according to need. It will contain the following information:
 - The length of term for each agency
 - Each agency member name along with
 - unique position designation
 - contact information (phone and email)
 - Political party affiliation as per registrar of voters
 - original appointment date and item number with link to RTM minutes and item number
 - most recent appointment date and item number with link to RTM minutes and item numbers
 - Date of the expiration of the current term
 - length of a member's service
 - date of any vacancy
 - data necessary to track the length of any vacancy needed as well as data needed for the RTM to exercise the responsibilities cited under the "failure to nominate" clause in charter section 306.
4. The entity will archive digital copies of the Master lists with the minutes of each RTM meeting
5. The entity will maintain searchable pdf digital archives of the nomination information (nomination forms, candidate information forms, resumes) organized and searchable by date, name, and agency
6. The committee will pursue amendments to the appointments process represented in the Town Charter and RTM Rules in order to ensure that the AC has the advance time it needs to perform its diligence in advising the RTM

Employment

Since graduating from law school in 1983, until September 30, 2013, I was with the firm of Dougherty Dougherty & Vecchiolla, LLC, a family owned firm started in 1930 by my grand-uncle, James A. Dougherty, first as an associate and since 1985 as a partner and managing member. Since October 1, 2013, I have been practicing solo under the business name Dougherty Greenwich Legal, LLC. I practice in the areas of Probate, Trusts and Estates, Real Estate, Land Use, Elder Law and Tax.

Personal

I have been married since 1985 to my wife Susan, a teacher in the Stamford Public School System. We have two children, James, born 1987, a graduate of Carnegie Mellon University and William and Mary School of Law, and Caileigh, born 1990, a graduate of Franklin & Marshall College. James is an accomplished bagpipe player and Caileigh is an open champion Irish step dancer. I am a lifelong Greenwich resident, and have lived at my present address since 1999. My family has lived in Greenwich since 1905 and has always been active in the community.
